

B-HORIZON[®]
MICROELECTRONICS

IT Administrator (m/f/d)

Your Previous Experiences:

Completed vocational training in computer science or degree in business information technology or computer science

Several years of work experience in IT administration or IT systems in combination with agile work methods

MS Windows Server & client operating systems

Backup systems, Virtualization VMware & IT Security (ISMS ISO 27001)

Configuration, management & controlling of IT systems & networks

Strong service mentality & communication skills

Profound speaking & writing skills in English and German

Your Responsibilities:

Creation of concepts for IT systems including possible alternative solutions (hardware & software including networks, databases, OS etc.)

Administration, maintenance & further development of the IT infrastructure (Windows Server, Active Directory, Microsoft Dynamics NAV and Office 365) & virtualization with VMware & security programs

Technical documentation of IT processes as well as administration of the IT inventory

Identification, analysis & fault rectification of OS software & standard programs

Selection & purchase of suitable software & hardware

Support for user problems including consulting & personal instruction

Your Benefits:

Impact on future technologies

Individual development opportunities in a growing company

Taking responsibility of a variety of tasks

Competitive remuneration package

Experienced, dynamic, diverse, & agile team

Modern work environment with flexible working hours

Company Pension

B-Horizon is an internationally active IC consultancy and design company with focus on the automotive, industry and consumer segments. We operate with the agility of a startup and the professionalism and solid process structure of a market established benchmark company.

Our passion and extensive experience in microelectronics as well as our wide range of consultancy and development services highlight our core competencies. With our services we leverage the lead position of our customers applications by enabling their innovative products with the best achievable time to market and total cost of ownership.

Are you interested in new professional horizons?

We are looking forward to your application by E-Mail!

Helena Nefe

engineer-career@b-horizon.com

info@b-horizon.com

<https://b-horizon.com>

